PRESIDENT OF ACADEMIC COUNCIL'S FORWARD

Succeeding the Engineering Institute that was been functioning since 1972, the „Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad, enlarged its activity in May 18th 1990, establishing new specializations that came into direct relationship with economic environment and regional traditional professions. As a result over 90% of the University graduates are working in the field and honor our institution.

Prof. Lizica Mihuţ, PhD

All 40 University specializations: Technical, Economical, Sciences, Humanistic, Educational, Social Work, Sport and Design are in agreement with European Union and U.S.A. academic standards.

Since 1999, The European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) has been introduced, making possible for the students to choose a direction of study according with their expectations and labour market development. The ECTS assure recognition of their studies in European Union Universities, for our students as well as for foreign students which study in here, when they turn back home.

The strategy of our University requires a dynamic management, a quality management, focusing over the true values of the humanity.

For the last few years, the „Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad, has gained a real prestige, being recognized in the Romanian academic community, due to the efforts of the academic staff, the educational quality and the first for knowledge achievement.
MESSAGE OF THE „AUREL VLAICU” UNIVERSITY RECTOR

The „Aurel Vlaicu” University is an institution whose mission is education and research, in the spirit of the European ideal of a society focused on knowledge, a university of the third millennium.

For me, this is an argument in carrying on the rector function, namely a management based on a team, so that, together, the boards of the nine faculties, all the teaching staff, could make the academic life more dynamic and the quality standards according to the present day socio-economic and cultural demands.

Quality is the main target which is to be reached both by the teaching staff and the students attending the three types of programmes present in the Bologna Programme.

We consider that together, we are successful in maintaining quality in today’s competition area.

Prof. Ramona Lile, PhD.

PRESENTATION OF THE CITY ARAD

Arad county is situated in the western part of Romania, representing the main Romania's entrance gate from Western Europe.

With an area of 7650 square kilometers, this county holds 3.2% of the total area of the country, the sixth biggest county of Romania.

The capital of the county is the city of Arad with 185,000 inhabitants.

The city of Arad is an important industrial centre and holds 3 to 5% of our national production, mainly centred on: machine-tool building, textiles, wood processing, leather goods, footwear, food stuffs and many others.

The city of Arad is the first important city when Entering Romania from the Central Europe.

Administration: the capital of the county
Geographical position: in the West fields, on the shores of the river Mures.

Population: 185,000 inhabitants
Altitude: 116.5 km Climate: temperate medium temperatures, in summer +21 °C, in winter -1°C.

Nowadays the local authorities imply actively in the process of reforms and promote the social-economic development of the county by encouraging foreign investments. The county has a strategic geographical position, being the main entrance gate in Romania from the European Union, offering social and economic stability, numerous foreign companies having established business in Arad, mainly in the Curtici Arad Free Zone. It has the advantage of the possibilities to combine foreign capital with other productive factors as well as an adequate structure. The favorable position of the zone is a long term trump, an important advantage because it is situated between the railways lien that connects Romania to occidental Europe and the Middle East, through Hungary and the road that connects the town Curtici with Arad, thus securing a rapid access to the zone and to the international airport of Arad.

ACCESS TO ARAD

On the road: E 68/60, 594 km from Bucharest (E) and 275 km from Budapest (W) E 671; at 50 km from Timisoara (S) and 117 km from Oradea (N).

On railway: 616 km from Bucharest and 275 km from Budapest.

By plane: Arad International Airport at 4km from Arad and Timisoara International Airport at 60 km from Arad. Closest borders

On road Turnu - 17 km; Nadlac - 46 km; Varșand - 65 km. Railway: Curtici 17 km

By plane: Arad International Airport at 4 km from Arad
BACKGROUND AND PRESENTATION OF THE UNIVERSITY

The „Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad is a state higher education institution, accredited and acknowledged by ARACIS as presenting a „high degree of confidence”, continuing the tradition of university education in the Arad area which started with the: Theology Institute (1822), the Livestock and Veterinary Medicine Faculty (1947), the Engineering Institute (1972).

The „Aurel Vlaicu” University came into being following decision nr.567/1990 issued by the Romanian Government, under the name of „Higher education Institute” and having one faculty the Faculty of Engineering, with the following profiles and specializations: Mechanics (technology of machine building; equipment and technology of welding; rolling equipment for railway); Textiles-leather (spinning and weaving; knits and ready-made clothes); Chemistry (chemical finishing of textiles); Food Technology (food technology). In 1991, following Order no. 4894/1991 of the Ministry of National Education, the new denomination of the institution has became „Aurel Vlaicu” University.

Beginning with the academic year 1991-1992, the University diversified its educational offer with a new faculty the Faculty of Theology and in 1993 the Faculty of Engineering changed its name in the Faculty of Engineering and Economic Studies as two economic specializations have started their activity: Finance -Insurance and financing control and accounting expertise. In 1999 the faculty re-organized in two faculties: the Faculty of Engineering and the Faculty of Economic Sciences. In 2002 Faculty of Food Engineering, Tourism and Environmental protection was established.

2002 Faculty of Food Engineering, Tourism and Environmental protection was established.

The University benefits from a highly trained academic staff and high quality endowments for didactic and scientific activities. The University is structured now in 9 Faculties and 12 Departments, having more than: 9,000 students; 477 academic staff, over 46,000 m² of educational premises, course and seminar halls, computerized laboratories:

The Academic Curricula, for all the Faculties are connected with European Credits Transfer System (ECTS) since 1999 and nowadays the „Aurel Vlaicu“ University Systems respects the Bologna Process, so that Diplomas as well as periods of study may be recognized all over EU.

THE BUREAU FOR COMMUNITARIAN PROGRAMMES (BCP)

The objectives of BCP are to set up the co-operation between European Universities Academic entities in order to provide to students and to teaching staff of „Aurel Vlaicu” University the opportunity to be part of the European Science and Culture. BCP carried out, on bases of Bilateral Agreements, the mobility of the students and teaching staff more than 14 European Countries. In the same time BCP achieves contacts with European Universities for structuring the Academic Curricula of our University into the ECT.

Romanian Language Courses

All Erasmus students have the opportunity to attend Romanian language classes within "Aurel Vlaicu" University of Arad. The courses are structured on two levels: A1 and A2. The course starts at the beginning of the academic year and ends in June. Students that attend courses in our university for only one semester can sit the exam at the end of the semester.

They can also obtain an internationally recognized certificate ECL (European Consortium of Languages) after having passed an international examination, hosted by our university.
Further information can be obtained in room 91 or 92, second floor, M building.

Academic Calendar

The academic year is divided in two semesters.

The winter semester starts on the 1st of October and lasts 14 weeks and finishes in the end of January. The spring semester starts in February and lasts 14 weeks, till the end of May. Usually the examination period for the first semester occurs in January/Febuary and in June for the second semester.

More detailed and updated information concerning the structure of academic year may be found on our website: http://www.uav.ro/en/academics/year-structure

THE FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

The Faculty of Engineering was setup in 1990, together with the University, as the successor of the Engineering Institute which has been functioning since 1972.

The Faculty of Engineering comprises eight long-term specializations and five master programs. All specializations have been authorized and accredited by the National Council for Academic Assessment and Accreditation. All specializations have daily courses lasting four years.

Aims of the degrees are to furnish specialists with skills and knowledge of scientific nature, to enable them to face the different demands of modern equipment and new technologies.

The educational process and the scientific research activities take place in 2 buildings having modern laboratories such as: laboratory for Computer aided Engineering, laboratory for Material Endurance, laboratory for Artificial Intelligence, Microsystems laboratory, laboratory for Industrial Informatics, laboratory for Car Maintenance and laboratories for Textile Technologies.

The Faculty of Food Engineering, Tourism and Environmental Protection of the “Aurel Vlaicu” University was founded in the year 2002 according to the Government Decision 410/25.04. 2002. Initially, between 1990 and 2002, the profile Food Engineering and Environment Protection functioned within the Chair for Chemical Sciences and Food Technologies from the Engineering Faculty of the “Aurel Vlaicu” University.

In 2010 a number of 1123 students study in the faculty under the guidance of 35 full and associate professors. The faculty has today several University studies with license degree and Master’s degree programmes.

The research takes place within the Centre for Chemistry and Technological Researches and within the Student’s Debating Societies and the papers are published in ISI or own magazines: Scientific and Technical Bulletin - Series Chemistry, food science and engineering, ISSN 1582-1021 Annals of the “Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad, Series: Chemistry, Number Chemistry and Environment Protection, ISSN 1582-3423.

THE FACULTY OF ECONOMIC SCIENCE

The Economic Studies Faculty within the „Aurel Vlaicu” University of Arad, situated on the Revolution’s Avenue 77, was set up in 1999, but economic specializations have already existed since 1993, within the Faculty of Engineering and Economic Sciences.

The institution’s main targets and goals are: preparing economists with university studies at the European level for different economic fields of activity and for teaching purposes; forming specialists with high adaptation capacity and professional mobility; promoting the progress and the social modernization; performing scientific and research activities, involving teaching staff, students and partners from industrial and social life; developing scientific and academic relationships with other similar faculties from Romania and abroad. For the faculty cycle, the institution has four specialties, accredited by the National Council for Academic Evaluation and Accreditation.

These specialties may be studied either by regular attendance or by reduced attendance during three years. For the master cycle, the institution offers fifteen specialties. This cycle ends by a final dissertation exam.

Referring to the material endowment, the Economic Studies Faculty’s activity takes place in both Building „D” and Building „M”, in 26 rooms: 2 halls (both in „M” Building); 7 lecture rooms (4 in „D” Building, 3 in „M” Building”); 11 seminary rooms (all in „D” Building”); 6 labs (1 networks lab, 1 multimedia lab, 4 programming labs, all in „M” Building.

Also, an important aspect is the libraries: the Central University Library „Cornelia Bodea” and the Building „M” Micro library.

THE FACULTY OF ORTHODOX THEOLOGY

In 1998 the faculty has been accredited by the National Council for Academic Evaluation and Accreditation. Starting with the academic year 2001-2002, the faculty offers open distance learning courses for monarchs, priests and theological college graduates.

The students and the teaching staff have at their disposal over 4.000 volumes of theological documentation in the library of the faculty and over 26.000 theological volumes in the library of the Bishopric of Arad.

The Faculty of Orthodox Theology functions within the “Aurel Vlaicu” University since 1991, when, after four decades of interruption, the tradition of theological education has been reestablished, as the theological education in Arad had been functioning uninterrupted from 1822 to 1948.

The Theological Institute from Arad was established during the Enlightenment cultural reform initiated by the Habsburg Empire. In 1822 the foundation of clerical schools in Arad, Timisoara and Vrsit was decided, and from 1825 the institute from Arad has become the Theological Academy which has been functioning till 1948, when it was abusively closed by the communist regime.

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences has begun its activity in 2003, having at that time five long term specializations: Romanian English, Special Psycho-pedagogy, Social Work, Public Administration and Journalism. Since the academic year 2005/2006, the specializations Social Work and Special Psycho-pedagogy have moved to the Faculty of Education Sciences. Beginning with the academic year 2006/2007 the Faculty will have a new specialization: History, Didactical Pentecostal Theology and Community Police. All of these specializations have been authorized and accredited by the National Council for Academic Evaluation and Accreditation.

The Faculty has 3 year daily courses. At the end of their studies, the graduates sit an exam and they are Bachelors of the specialization they have attended. They have the right to be Romanian/English teachers, translators, interpreters, public clerks, journalists. The Faculty has also a Department of Foreign Languages. The Department coordinates all foreign language classes of the University. The students can choose between English, French and German in the first four semesters of study. Before graduation they receive a language certificate granting their knowledge in one of the above mentioned languages. The Department organizes preparation courses for Cambridge First Certificate and Certificate in Advanced English, as well as English, French and German courses.

The faculty owns two libraries: one for foreign languages and one for Romanian and journalism, a journalism lab and has access to the internet.

LEISURE POSSIBILITIES

Arad is a town which is both ancient and modern, having individuality and a charm all its own due to its specific architecture and the unique symbiosis between the town and the Mures River. The happy combination of town and natural environment boasts important landmarks like the Fortress, the Embankment and the new strand on the river and the latest addition of a nature reserve „The lower Mures, meadow“ extending down river till Hungarian border.

At last but not least Arad may be the starting point for trips all around the region, rich in medieval fortress and castles, monasteries, various historical sites, churches, museums on the Mures and on the White Cris Valleys, trips to the famous vineyards of the region and the resorts of Moneasa and Lipova.

Arad County, the area was known historically and geographically since ancient times, and has been in constant contact with the Western civilization, gateway to the country from Hungary, Arad is located in an area with a rich vineyard on the banks of the Mures, river, which forms a large loop, surrounding the fortress built in the eighteenth century.

Thus, an initial survey of cultural and historical values reveals rich and diverse heritage:

- Medieval cities: Siria, Soimos, Dezna - XIIIth century, Ineu - XVIIth century
- Mures Valley castles and manors: Odvos, Capalnas, Bulci, Conop, the Royal Castle Savarsin
- Turkish Bazaar Lipova - 1672
